Robert F. Busbey was an athlete, swim coach and athletic director for CSU. He was Cleveland State's Head Swim Coach from 1951-1981, and he served as the athletic director from 1966-1990. During his coaching career, he was named as an assistant coach to the 1964 USA Olympic swim team. In 1999 Cleveland State's CSU Natatorium was renamed the Robert F. Busbey Natatorium to honor his years of service to CSU. The seahorse logo associated with the Robert F. Busbey Invitational is based on the logo of the Cleveland Swim Club, a team that Busbey coached prior to his career with CSU.
